2nd Sunday of Advent

ST. RITA CHURCH

Joyfully living and sharing the Gospel of Jesus, we welcome, worship, inspire, and serve with love.

From the Desk of Father Tim . . .

Keep Up The Good Work!

Dear Friends,

We are so close to fulfilling our CMA responsibilities. However, as they say, some cracks are beginning to show.

So, on the positive side, as I write this just after Thanksgiving, we are at 86% of our goal and our average gift is whopping $450 from 303 households.

Our weaknesses are that, so far, we have 145 fewer households participating than last year, with only 18 households that are new to the appeal. I am donating an additional $5 for every new household and for every household above the number who contributed last year. So far, I am only out $90. Don't let me off the hook!

My hope is that everyone can come to believe in and value the CMA as much as I do.
- Fr. Tim

If you were waiting until now to see if your gift was really needed, then the answer is a resounding "yes, indeed".

If you are waiting until the new year to make your contribution, then would you please make a pledge now which you can then fulfill in the new year? Your pledge can be counted now toward our parish goal.

If you have not yet participated, please pray about your participation this year. There is no expectation that every household matches our current average gift. Make a contribution that makes sense for you and your household.

Please remember the core purpose of the CMA as we support the ministers and ministries, work that is being done for you and in our name. These are ministries that value the dignity of every human person and lift up those who are in circumstances that threaten a person's ability to remember their own sacredness.

St. Rita is so incredibly generous and I thank you in advance for your participation!

Love,
Fr. Tim

Reflections on Readings for the Second Sunday of Advent

"Prepare The Way Of The Lord, Make Straight His Paths"

Our readings this Sunday look at the foretelling of the coming of Christ in both the Hebrew and Christian Scriptures. The Church seeks to put us in the minds and in the shoes of first century Jews who eagerly awaited the Messiah. All of our readings today help us prepare for the coming of the one who "shall judge the poor with justice" and who will "baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire."

In our first reading (Isaiah 11:1-10), Isaiah offers hope to the people of Judah at a time when they were besieged by relentless attacks by foreign foes. Isaiah foretells a time when "the wolf will be the guest of the lamb". His prophecy was that "a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse." Jesse was King David's father and this is a metaphor for the Kingdom of David. Isaiah is saying that even though the Kingdom of David has been cut down, a new shoot (the Messiah) will arise to restore the kingdom and God's glory. Isaiah writes, "On that day, the root of Jesse, set up as a signal for the nations, the Gentiles shall seek out, for his dwelling shall be glorious."

In our Epistle reading (Romans 15:4-9), St. Paul echoes the theme of our first reading and offers a vision of hope and peaceful harmony. Similar to Isaiah's prophecy of a day when "the calf and the young lion will browse together", it is Christ Jesus who welcomes both Jew and Gentile, who will "with one accord you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ."

In our Gospel reading (Matthew 3:1-12), John the Baptist preached a message of repentance, heralding a new Exodus where God would deliver His people from sin. John was foretold by the Prophet Isaiah, who said, "A voice crying out in the desert . . . Prepare the way of the Lord." John heralded the coming of the Messiah Jesus by declaring that, "the one who is coming after me is mightier than I . . . He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." John was the forerunner of the Messiah, the one who prepared "the way of the Lord."

For we who hope in Christ during this season of Advent, our call is to prepare our hearts to receive our Lord as if for the first time. We would do well to follow St. Paul's instruction that "by the encouragement of the Scriptures" we should "think in harmony with one another, in keeping with Christ Jesus", thus glorifying God. "Amen! Come, Lord Jesus." (Rev. 22:20)

Over the Jubilee Year, we will explore the themes of Hope, Pilgrimage, and Jubilee, always ending with a question for you to consider over the week.

John the Baptist takes us back to the beginning of our Jubilee Pilgrimage today when he quotes Isaiah: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths." As our jubilee begins to come to a close, we naturally look to where this pilgrimage is taking us beyond the Holy Year. After a year of focusing on hope, we are a changed Church that is more prepared to make straight the Lord's path.

Pondering Point

What hopes do you have beyond the Jubilee Year? For yourself? For our Church? For the world?

Where Faith and Knowledge Meet

Giving thanks for our amazing SRS faculty and staff is important all year round. One of our favorite traditions is beautifully wrapping up donated pies from our families to give to our wonderful staff- a small token of our enormous gratitude for the dedication, hard work, and love they give to our students every single day.

Many thanks to Cub Scout Pack 163 and their families who helped in sorting, packing, and delivering our Thanksgiving baskets this year!

Do you have children in grades Pre-K through 12*?

we want to hear from you!

This is the first of two surveys that will help shape our faith formation and sacrament preparation programs to best provide the support your family needs, no matter what schools you attend.

Please take this opportunity to share about your family. We look forward to learning how we can meet your needs.

Answers requested by December 7. It only takes 15 minutes!

*We would like to hear from all parents, grandparents, or caregivers to any child in grades Pre-K to 12 being raised in the Catholic faith. Paper forms are also available in the Greeting Area.

PRAYER PARTNERS

Take a Heart
Leave Your Prayers

Our young folks preparing for their Sacraments of Initiation are in need of your prayers! Please consider taking the name of a youth home with you, and praying for their journey through the Easter season. If you are willing to leave kind words each week for our youngest children preparing for their First Reconciliation and First Communion, take a heart from the organizer on the hallway wall and leave us your name and email on the purple sign-up sheet. This ministry brings SO much joy to these children throughout the winter and spring! If you would simply like to pray without the extra steps, take a dove from the basket, and pray for a teen preparing for their Confirmation.

Thank you for all your prayer and support of our youth!

Catholic Social Teaching

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

For the past month, we have been discussing the basic theme of Catholic Social Teaching (CST), namely, The Dignity and Sacredness of Every Human Person. This is the foundation of CST and each of its other themes flow from this.

The second theme is Call to Family, Community, and Participation. This theme expresses the truth that the human person is created in the image of the Triune God, in which relationship is the very nature of who God is. Because of this, every person is both sacred and social. Their sacredness is lived out within relationships, which can be grouped under the categories of family and community.

Marriage and the family create the foundation of society and so need to be supported and strengthened. It is within the family that the human person first learns values, justice, how to relate to others, and what it means to have a relationship with God our Father and our Lord, Jesus Christ. A society's policies should be evaluated based on their impact on family stability and well-being.

A basic human right of every person is to participate in community. This is often expressed in voting, running for office, and even protesting. It is a moral and ethical responsibility of every person, says Pope Saint John Paul II, to take part in community service, advocate for justice, and work to ensure that everyone, particularly marginalized groups, has a voice in the decisions that affect their lives.

Living the Gospel of Jesus Christ leads to our working for the common good. The common good is what is best for all people, especially the marginalized and impoverished.

It is within family and community that we are formed into the image of Jesus and develop our option for the poor, which is part of the nature of God's love for all of humanity. That is, we and our communities are judged by how we work for, and develop policies for, the good of those who are most deeply in need.

May we each find ways to express our call to family, community and participation and work to uphold and strengthen the sacredness and dignity of every person.

Peace,
Fr. Tim
